

2016 FALL UBC RESPIRATORY RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES

Presentation in room #1477 "The Cullen Family Lecture" ***

Thursday at 5:00pm	Topic	Speaker(s)
Sept 15	Moving towards personalized COPD care: quantifying the individualized pattern of lung function decline and exacerbations	Mohsen Sadatsafavi & Zafar Zafari
Sept 22	Peter Paré Lecture: Asthma is COPD and COPD is Asthma	Greg King (University of Sydney)
Sept 29	The effects of little cigars and e-cigarettes on respiratory epithelia	Robert Tarran (University of North Carolina)
Oct 6	How Four Gut Bacteria Decrease Asthma Risk in Infants	Stuart Turvey
Oct 13	Small airways disease In IPF: the relationship between micro CT and histology	Jim Hogg
Oct 20	From GWAS to mechanism: Using Multiple Sources of Gene Regulatory Information to Understand the Functional Mechanisms of Disease-Associated Genetic Variants	Peter Castaldi (Harvard University)
Oct 27	Cardiac and Pulmonary Vascular Considerations in Lung Transplantation	Justin Weinkauff (University of Alberta)
Nov 3	Characterizing genetic influences on epigenomes and transcriptomes in human cells	Tomi Markku Pastinen (University of McGill)
Nov 10	Lung Health of First Nations Communities in British Columbia, Canada	Pat Camp
Nov 17	Innate lymphoid cells and allergic lung inflammation	Fumio Takei
Nov 24	Respiratory Syncytial Virus Cellular Entry and Transmission in the Community	David Marchant (University of Alberta)
Dec 1	HIV and Airway Disease	Janice Leung
Dec 8	Role of Innate Lymphoid cells and RORa in immunity and fibrotic disease	Kelly McNagny
Dec 15	Why do women experience more dyspnea than men?	Jordan Guenette

Video linked: